A SIMPLE RESOLUTION CONCERNING
THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

WHEREAS: The Maryland Student Legislature (henceforth "MSL") was formed originally as an organization to give college students a voice in politics; and.

WHEREAS: MSL has now adopted "The Voice of College Students Across Maryland" as its official slogan; and,

WHEREAS: The Corporate By-laws for the Board of Directors list mostly administrative and financial duties as powers given to the board; and,

WHEREAS: Recently, there have been instances of the Board of Directors interfering with student activities of MSL; and,

WHEREAS: This included awards that were nominated by students and voted on by students. but then taken away by the Board of Directors; and,

WHEREAS: As MSL is a student run organization, expressing the voice of college students, and the activities that happen within MSL should not be interfered upon by the Board of Directors, who except for the Governor, is comprised entirely of non-college students; and,

WHEREAS: For MSL to remain a student run organization, the Board of Directors should refrain from interfering with the student activities.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Maryland Student Legislature urges the Board of Directors to keep their involvement with MSL simply to business matters, and other non-student responsibilities; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Maryland Student Legislature will not tolerate another interference with student activities; specifically those involved with legislative sessions.
